TAX PREPARATION ASSISTANCE

Scared to do your own taxes?

The Buckley M&FRC is hosting a tax preparation clinic to help. Two IRS trained tax preparers will be on hand to help while you complete your tax return using MilTax, through Military OneSource (ID check on entry). Participants need to bring their W-2s, 1099s, 1098s, and any other tax documents with them. Strongly recommended to bring personal computing device to the clinic. A limited number of computers will be available if needed. No sign up necessary, walk-ins welcome throughout the day.

APRIL CLASSES

JUNIOR ENLISTED FOUNDATIONS COURSE (AMN300)

13-17 April | 0800-1600 hrs. | Bldg 30 Classroom 2

The Junior Enlisted Foundations Course bridges the gap between tech school and Airman Leadership School. The course provides students with the foundational skills and knowledge needed to conform to standards, customs and courtesies, and offers guidance to help enhance the students' focus on becoming highly efficient career field and 5-skill level agents. The JEFC300 empowers Airman to reflect on their behaviors in relation to the Airmen Leadership Qualities. It facilitates the journey to developing supervisory and leadership skills, developing the competency of leading individuals and teams, and understanding the guardrails and guidelines of supervision. This course is MANDATORY to attend ALS.

INFORMED DECISION SEMINAR

20 April | 0900-1200 hrs. | Bldg 606 Auditorium

Mandatory for all First and Second Term Airmen & Guardians within 15 months from their date of separation, regardless of the decision they are making. This informational brief is designed to assist with making an informed decision on reenlistment or separation. Topics include: Air Force compensation, retraining, assignments, Air National Guard and Air Reserve options and service life intangibles. Spouses are also welcomed to attend.

If you are interested in becoming an instructor for the Foundations Courses, please schedule an appointment with SMSgt Logan Multer-White. We need motivated individuals interested in developing themselves and Team Buckley.

Please Note Members attending these courses should limit appointments during class time to a minimum. Credit for weeklong offerings such as the Foundations Courses or FTEC is based on attendance for the entire week. While exceptions can be made, they will only be made for extenuating circumstances or emergencies.

For more information or to register for classes, reach out to SMSgt Logan Multer-White via phone at 720-847-6933
or via e-mail at 460FSS.FSDP.CareerAdvisor@us.af.mil

APRIL CLASSES

FIRST TERM ENLISTED COURSE (FTEC)

20-24 April | 0730-1600 hrs. | Bldg 30 Classroom 2

This mandatory five-day program designed for all first-term Airmen and Guardians arriving at their first duty station, including those assigned to Buckley Garrison and its tenant units. It transitions Junior Enlisted members from a training mindset to a mission-oriented environment, reinforcing lessons from Basic Military Training and technical training. FTEC focuses on developing a warrior ethos, expeditionary mindset, and leadership skills, preparing them for the operational Air Force.

If you are interested in becoming an instructor for the Foundations Courses, please schedule an appointment with SMSgt Logan Multer-White. We need motivated individuals interested in developing themselves and Team Buckley.

Please Note Members attending these courses should limit appointments during class time to a minimum. Credit for weeklong offerings such as the Foundations Courses or FTEC is based on attendance for the entire week.
